Response to Amendment

The Amendment filed December 11, 2000 (Paper No. 12) in response to the Office Action of June 7, 2000 is acknowledged and has been entered. Claims 1-2, and 9 have been amended. New Claims 27-59 have been added. Claims 1-9, and 27-59 are pending and are currently being examined.

The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office Action.

Rejections Maintained

35 USC 102(e)

Claims 1,3-9 remain rejected, and amended Claim 2 and new Claims 27-58 are rejected under 35 USC 102(e) as being anticipated by Yu et al. (US Patent No. 5998171, August 16, 1996) for the reasons of record in Paper No. 10, page 6. Further, all of the claims are drawn to isolated DNA comprising polynucleotides. The Yu et al. reference clearly anticipates such DNA comprising polynucleotides which encode the complete protein from amino acids 1-177 of SEQ ID NO:1 including encoding various fragments of SEQ ID NO: 1.

Applicant's argue (Paper No. 12, pages 7-8) that the Yu et al. patent cannot anticipate claims 1 or 3-9 because the Yu et al. patent disclosure is non-enabling. Applicant's argue that the patent provides structural information concerning endokine alpha, yet fails to teach one of ordinary skill how to use such an endokine alpha polypeptide. Applicant's further argue that the patent provides no functional data to suggest how the endokine alpha polypeptide can be tested in cytotoxicity or proliferation assays. Essentially, applicant's argue, the disclosure within US Patent No. 5998171 fails to meet the requirements of either Section 112 or Section 101. This argument has been considered but is not found persuasive. Patents are relevant as prior art for all they contain, and once a patent has been issued it is considered valid and assumed to meet the requirements of 35 USC 112 and 101. Thus, Applicant's arguments have not been found persuasive and the rejection is maintained.

All other rejections are withdrawn in light of the amendments thereto.

New Objections

The specification is objected to for the following reason: The specification on page 1 should be amended to reflect the priority status of the present application, for example:

This application claims benefit to provisional application 60/065,635, filed November 11, 1997, now abandoned, and to provisional application 60/069,661, filed December 12, 1997, now abandoned.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claim 59 is allowed.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
